

Advocate Lutheran General Hospital Nursing

Advocate Lutheran General Hospital is a 686 bed, non-profit, acute care, teaching hospital, level 1 trauma center and level 3 perinatal center. Advocate Lutheran General offers innovative services, advanced technology and holds national recognition for achievements in quality patient care. Accolades include:

- 50 years of CARF accreditation for inpatient rehabilitation
- Emergency Nurses Association Lantern Award
- Best Hospital for Maternity Care by US News and World Report
- FACT Accreditation for the Transplant and Cellular Therapy Program
- Healthgrades America's 50 Best Hospitals
- Certified Comprehensive Stroke Center
- New 6-bed Epilepsy Monitoring Unit
- New 12-bed Clinical Decision Unit

1,700 Nurses providing care

200 Nurses with advanced degrees

Recognition

5x Magnet Designee
by the American
Nurses Credentialing
Center

35% of RNs are certified
85% of RNs with BSN or higher

Over 50 Professional Governance frontline members within 6 sub-councils

4.7% RN Vacancy
670+ Nurses > 5 years of service

15 Publications, Podium and Poster Presentations in 2024

Teammate Engagement & Recognition

- Code Lavender Program
- Daisy, Petal and Lily recognition programs
- Workplace violence committee
- 2024 Top Tier for teammate engagement
- Exemplar for nurse satisfaction

Professional Development

- Provides certification resources through onsite and virtual courses
- Four on-site adjunct nurse residency programs
- Annual Nursing Research Symposium
- 140 nurse residents

Practice, Quality & Safety

- Virtual nurse and sitter program
- Age friendly
- Rapid cycle process improvement methodology to drive outcomes
- Exceeding target for patient experience

Advocate Lutheran General Hospital | Park Ridge, IL