

Aurora Sinai Medical Center Nursing

Aurora Sinai Medical Center is a 386 bed, non-profit, acute care community hospital offering a wide range of medical specialties. Highlights and awards include:

- Top three not-for-profit health system
- Level III neonatal intensive care unit
- America's best maternity hospitals 2024-2025
- Caring for our community through access to a housing navigator through Milwaukee Health Care Partnership Housing Initiative
- Returning Citizens Program
- Sexual Assault Treatment Center
- Get with the Guidelines® Stroke Gold Plus Achievement Award American Heart Association / American Stroke Association

534 nurses

22% of RNs are certified

78% of nurses have a BSN+

49 Nurses took advantage of Educational Assistance

Recognition

Silver Certified Cribs for Kids
Safe Sleep Hospital

U.S. News & World Report:
Best Hospitals for Maternity
Care 2024-2025

ACE: Age-Friendly Health
System-Committed to Care
Excellence recognition

10 of 11 Ambulatory care areas had zero falls with injury in 2024

68 nurses participated in
Nurse Residency in 2024

4 of 5 Inpatient units
CLABSI free in 2024

Research

- Pressure injury development in Black or African American critically ill patients
- Evaluating the Impact of COVID-19 on Nurse Well-Being Resources
- Identifying Risks for Intraventricular Hemorrhage During Transport

Evidence-Based Practice

- ICU Mobility Olympics: Unit-based initiative to promote early mobility. Presented at:
- The Advocate Health Nursing Research & Professional Development Conference
 - The Association for Nursing Professional Development Conference

Quality Improvement

- Reducing HAPI in High-Risk Patients Through a Turning and Positioning Intervention presented at local WI conference
- ICU: What the Butt? Sustainable Pressure Injury Reduction will be presented at the 2025 Magnet Conference